This bill owes its existence to the craft of claim agents at Washington. Under the law as it stood prior to the enactment of this last bill the annual payments on account of pensions were less than $30,000,000, and were steadily decreasing. The business of filing pension claims was ceasing to be profitable, and claim agents saw that in a few years more their occupation would be wholly gone. Thereupon they determined upon three things, in all of which they were successful. These were, first, to got congress to pay a premium to applicants for pensions, in order to awell the business of the claim agents; second, to provent the adoption of the measures for protection of the government which had been recommended by the bold policy of denouncing as enemies of the soldlers all who denouncing as enemies of the soldlers all who denouncing as enemies of the soldlers all who ob ections were silenced by the bold policy of den ouncing as enemies of the soldiers all who ventured to my that the bill ought to be oramined and the subjec; well considered before a vote was taken on so important a measure.

The pension bureau is one of the offices of the interior department. Carl Schurz, who was secretary of the interior when the bill mesod, opposed it strenuously, cetimating the illimate sost of the acr at not less than $500,-30,000. For this he was roundly denounced by the pension agents. The Chicago Tribune, ject, says the cost of the act is more likely to congress shall put on the brakes." FIRGINIA POLITICS

All over the country the democratic press has attempted to defead the Bourbons of Virginia with this argument. The simp o face is that the integ. rity of the state debt was not really in issue in the late election in Virginia. Neither read usmeet fully the obligations of the state, and the influence in directing the policy of the state. Since one wing of the democratic party of Vir guin was as far wrong on this subject as the other, the republicans were at liberty to form an alliance with either without reference to the They chose the company of the readjusters because this wing of the party rep. So much the book said during a year past by are press of the whole country on the political. situation in Virginia, which grows more or less out of the condition of the state debt, that it is not uninteresting to inquire what the actual condition of that debt is. Ten years ago the wineipal, recognized by an act of the legislasure as existing prior to the creation of the state of West Virginia, was $45,718,112. Onethird of this, it is assumed, should be assigned to West Virginia as her share, which seems nessonable enough. There is no rouble in Figures about a "corpet-bag" debt. The socalled carpet baggers never controlled the state. Nearly the whole of the deb; antedates the war. Interest on it is in arrest many years: Such a dobt, though large, is not beyoud the ability of the two states to carry and pay. If any disposition were shown by the people to keep faith with their public creditors the debt could be funded on long time at a very liw rate of interest say four per cent. The two states could pay this and support a sinking fund for gradual discharge of the principal. int there is wanting in Y rginis a true sense of the inviolability of the public honor as invo ved in meeting the state s obligations; and so he debt of the state is used as a foot-ball At our Salesroom, Thursday, Dec. 15th, by partisan factions, each st. lving to get an advantage over the other through the game.

"he people of Ireland by daily atrocities are soraly trying the patience of their American we l-wishers. Thousands of people who appreciate the wrongs under which the Irish suser, are shocked at the ruthless outrages committed by them. The d stresses of Ireland are now at an extreme point The land roubes, which have so frotted the country for the part two years, are nowise remedied by recent egistation, and thousands of tenants are on the point of bankruptcy and despair. The agtation has stifled industry and the agricultura laborers, a class dependent upon the tenance and troop the landowners, are reduced to the most abject condition of want. Here is a now danger. These people are organized under the leadership of shrewd and vicious men who find in their ignerates and desperate poverty a resource for bloody deeds. Hepatitis, or Liver Complaint, DYSPERSIA AND SICK HEADACHE.

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

DAIN in the right side, under the egge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternative with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy iensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A sight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above sym itoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existec, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to
